

SENIOR COURSES IN THE ENGLISH FACULTY

Wellington High School

ENGLISH LEVEL 1

ENG112

The emphasis is on building confidence in:

- writing
- literary analysis

This year students read a novel and study a film as a class. They sit one external exam.

In CLE112*

Student study written texts from Ancient Greece and Rome and films based on stories from this period.

Students can do BOTH ENG112 and CLS112 OR either one.

EPB112

The emphasis is on building independence and following personal interests with support of the teacher and potentially other students.

If you prefer to study books and films of your own choosing, and wish to develop analysis skills in your self selected contexts, this course is for you.

ENGLISH LEVEL 2

At level 2 and 3, English is strongly encouraged. This is an important way to get UE literacy credits.

ENG223	ENW223	EPB223	ENR223	CLE223*	PWD223*
Write about and study interesting films, poems, and novels as a class, learn about genre, and research an issue that arises from your viewing and reading. 	Learn to read with the eyes of a writer and develop your voice as an author through trying out multiple styles and genres. 	If you prefer to study books and films of your own choosing and wish to select the way you wish to demonstrate your learning, this is for you. 	Learn more about comparative religions and look at how various religions are represented in films and books. 	Study written and visual texts from and about Ancient Greece and Rome. 	Investigate how art and some literature has helped create our culture and a sense of national identity here in Aotearoa.

ENGLISH AT LEVEL 3

ENG335

Develop an understanding of literary study; learn to apply literary lenses to what you read and view. These include Marxist, Feminist, Post Colonial and New Historical Lenses.

EPB335

Study books and films of your own choosing, and select the ways you wish to show what you have learned.

ENP335

Look at texts from a philosophical perspective, and learn to provide philosophical answers to big questions.

ENG334

If you didn't get the prerequisites for the other English courses, but you want or need to keep studying English, then try this course. You can do work at your own pace and try for the credits you need.

PWD335*

Learn about modernist art; develop your ability to talk and write about art. Investigate some of the gnarly issues facing the art world art today.

